PREFACE.

THE proposal for a Shakespeare Memorial Library was made by Mr. Samuel Timmins in 1858, and first publicly advocated by Mr. George Dawson in 1861.

The following extract from the letter sent by Mr. Dawson to Aris's Gazette when proposing the scheme, will serve to show the nature and scope of the Library which the founders desired to establish:—

“I want to see founded in Birmingham a Shakespeare “Library which should contain (as far as practicable) every “edition and every translation of Shakespeare; all the “commentators, good, bad, and indifferent; in short, every “book connected with the life or works of our great poet.
“I would add portraits of Shakespeare, and all the pictures,
“etc., illustrative of his works.”

The project was further considered by the local Shakespeare Club in June, 1863; and on July 10th, 1863, a meeting was held at the Philosophical Institution, Cannon Street, the Rev. Charles Evans in the chair, at which a Committee was formed. Mr. John Henry Chamberlain, Mr. George Jabet, and Mr. Sam Timmins were appointed Honorary Secretaries, and Mr. John Jaffray Honorary Treasurer to the fund, and many donations were secured.

On April 23rd, 1864, the Tercentenary of Shakespeare's birth, a public breakfast was given by the Mayor, W. Holliday, Esq., at the Royal Hotel, and on this occasion a large collection of editions of Shakespeare's works and of literature relating to them was accepted by the Mayor, and subsequently by the Corporation on behalf of the town, together with about £450 in money to be spent by the Memorial Committee in the purchase of books.

The conditions on which the presentation was made were:—

- (1) That a special room, to be called the Shakespeare Memorial Library, and to be exclusively used for that purpose, should be appropriated to the Collection.
- (2) That the Library should be placed under the same regulations as the Free Reference Library.
- (3) That the Library be maintained and augmented by the Free Libraries Committee, and all works of the same class purchased by them, or by the Shakespeare Memorial Committee, be placed and arranged in the Shakespeare Memorial Library.

In accordance with these conditions, the Town Council provided a suitable room set apart for the Shakespeare Library in the Central Reference and Lending Libraries, and, after various unavoidable delays, the Shakespeare Library was completed, and opened to the public by Thomas Avery, Esq., Mayor, on the 23rd of April, 1868. In the evening a Banquet was given by his Worship in celebration of an event reflecting so much honour on the town, and in recognition of the generous labours of the Shakespeare Memorial Library Committee, consisting of his Worship the Mayor, M. D. Hill, Esq., Q.C., Rev. S. Bache, Rev. G. D. Boyle, Mr. J. Thackray Bunce, Mr. J. H. Chamberlain, Mr. George Dawson, Mr. Sebastian Evans, Rev. Charles Evans, Dr. Bell Fletcher, Mr. James Freeman, Mr. William Harris, Dr. Heslop, Rev. T. N. Hutchinson, Dr. Ingleby, Mr. John Jaffray, Mr. George Jabet, Mr. G. J. Johnson, Mr. J. A. Langford, Mr. Thomas Lloyd, Mr. Thomas Martineau, Mr. William Martin, Mr. C. E. Mathews, Mr. Arthur Ryland, Mr. George Shaw, Mr. W. L. Sargant, Mr. J. H. Stack, Mr. Samuel Timmins, Mr. Edmund Tonks, and Rev. Charles Vince.

At the date of opening, the Memorial Library consisted of 1,239 Volumes.

It was increased every year by purchases and gifts until the collection reached a total of 7,000 Volumes, when it was almost entirely destroyed in the disastrous fire of January 11th, 1879, only about 500 Volumes being saved.

With characteristic energy the Committee of the Shakespeare Memorial Library at once set to work to repair the disaster.

A Special Meeting of the Subscribers was held a few days after the fire—viz., on January 24th, 1879, and the honorary secretaries were instructed to prepare a statement of the facts and an appeal for assistance in restoring the Library.

So successful was this appeal, that at the Annual Meeting of the Subscribers, held on April 23rd, 1879, under the chairmanship of the Mayor, Jesse Collings, Esq., the Committee were able to report that 550 Volumes had been acquired, in addition to those saved from the fire, making a total of 1,078 Volumes, which would form the nucleus of the new Library. They reported also that the Free Libraries Committee, in their plans for the new buildings, had provided a much larger and better room than had previously been available, and that there was reason to believe that at no distant date the Shakespeare Library would not only be restored to its former importance, but that it would form, in many respects, a more fitting memorial to Shakespeare than the Library which had been destroyed.

This expectation has been fully realised. In June, 1882, when the restored Central Libraries were opened, the Shakespeare Library already contained about 4,000 volumes, and among these was included a copy of the first folio (1623) in excellent condition, a luxury which the former Library had never been able to afford. The Library also possessed copies of the second folio (1632), third folio, first issue (1663), third folio, second issue (1664), and fourth folio (1685), and a set of the reprints of the early quartos (48 volumes) facsimiled by Mr. E. W. Ashbee.

The new home of the Shakespeare Library, on which special care in decoration was lavished, is a fine room, Elizabethan in design, having enclosed book cases throughout, and enriched wherever possible with carved panelling.

Year by year the Memorial Library Committee had the satisfaction of reporting numerous and valuable additions to the Library, until at the present date it is far larger and more complete than the former Library, the loss of which seemed at first almost irreparable.

The Library now contains 11,489 volumes, of which 2,196 have been presented.

Among the principal donors, are the following :—

Shakespeare Memorial Library Committee,
Our Shakespeare Club (Birmingham),
Samuel Timmins, Esq., J.P.
J. Staunton, Esq., of Longbridge,
Mrs. Mary Cowden-Clarke,

and the late Mr. John D. Mullins, Chief Librarian of the Birmingham Free Libraries when the Shakespeare Memorial Library was founded, who bequeathed the sum of 100 guineas, free of legacy duty, to be invested, and the income derived from such investment to be applied annually, on or about the 23rd of April in each year, in the purchase of a book or books for the Shakespeare Memorial Library.

In the compilation of the Index to the Shakespeare Memorial Library, which is now finished, the Chief Librarian has been greatly assisted by Mr. Walter Powell, the Deputy Librarian, to whose care and labour it owes much of its completeness.
